BEA ABBOTT had an ultrasound last week hoping to find out why she's been nauseated for over a month. Bea welcomes our prayers that a reason will be found, and if it's God's will, that it can be "fixed."

ARCELIA BALA has been going downhill, which was to be expected. She is having more seizures and is having a hard time talking and walking. Careline has now delivered her a pediatric wheelchair to help her get around. Prayers would also be appreciated for her family. Not only are they concerned about their daughter, but also, they have some other decisions that need to be made soon.

PATSY BEECHAM will be having a total knee replacement tomorrow, July 25.

TIM and LINDA BONT are busy serving in Togo. Please pray as Tim works at the Hospital of Hope and Linda prepares and conducts seminars. Pick up a special Prayer Prompter at the Welcome Center so you know how to pray for them.

JIM BROWN (Carolyn's husband) saw the cardiologist, and his heart has been cleared. Unfortunately he is still having chest pains; his primary doctor will continue to monitor that situation.

JIM BROWN (Jackie's husband) is making progress in his therapy. His most recent accomplishment is being able to sit at the edge of his bed and use a walker to transfer to the wheelchair. July 27 is the target date for discharge. The Browns are thankful for the prayers of the FBC family.

TONY HARRISON had his stem cell transplant and is home. He doesn't have an immune system right now so he has to stay away from people. Tony doesn't have an appetite and wears out easily but is doing good overall. The Harrison family is praising God for His continuous answers to prayers!

NATE HARPER is on hospice now and is waiting to go Home.

BRIAN MAKA (Walker's neighbor) is home and is slowly getting back to normal. He still has a bit of swelling that is making progress slower than he would like, but overall he is healing well.

DASIL REYNOLDS will be having knee surgery tomorrow, July 25.
